DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On July 9, 2018, Kayla Stradling filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered Guillain-Barré syndrome as a result of receiving an influenza vaccine on October 2, 2015. (Petition at 1). On October 1, 2020, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. (ECF No. 53).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated October 19, 2020, (ECF No. 57) requesting a total award of $33,918.72 (representing $32,279.90 in fees and $1,538.82 in costs). In accordance with General Order #9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (ECF No. 57-3). Respondent reacted to the motion on November 2, 2020 indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case and defers to the Court's discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 59). That same day, Petitioner filed a reply requesting a decision be issued awarding attorney's fees and costs in full. (ECF No. 60).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. § 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $33,918.72 (representing $32,279.90 in fees and $1,538.82 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. Petitioner requests the check be forwarded to Maglio Christopher & Toale, PA, 1605 Main Street, Suite 710, Sarasota Florida, 34236. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
